

OUTSOURCING

Although this is a guide to find all things free in the Internet Marketing world in order to help you succeed in your business, there will be times when you cannot possibly manage everything by yourself. Outsourcing is a great time saver and solution solver if you do it right and find a reputable person or company to work with. Listed below are some of the best known companies on the internet today, so if you are looking for a copywriter, article creation, a graphics guy or even a place to deal with your support tickets look into some of these.

Fiverr

It is amazing what you can get done for just $5 these days. I use this site on a weekly basis because it is so cheap and the results I get are seriously very good for what I need to have done.

Fiverr is a global online marketplace offering tasks and services, referred to as 'gigs' and micro-jobs beginning at a cost of $5 per job performed. Entrepreneurs and freelancers use Fiverr to offer more than 324 services categorised in 13 categories and 115 sub-categories. Customers needing services can use Fiverr's search or surprise me functions to find and commission services directly through the site. Currently, Fiverr lists more than 1.3 million services on the site that range between $5 and $500
